

INDIANAPOLIS OPERA

Contacts:

Carol Baker, General Manager | 317.283.3531 | carolb@indyopera.org

Matt Mindrum, Board of Directors | 317.344.9005 | mmindrum@butler.edu

October 13, 2014

Indianapolis Opera Elects New Members to Board of Directors

Indianapolis Opera recently elected new board members and approved a new officer slate. Newly elected president Arnold C. Hanish welcomed the following to the Opera board to serve a three-year term:

Dr. Lisa Bauman, Indianapolis Gastroenterology and Hepatology

David Blish, Katz Sapper & Miller

Debbie Glymph-Bennett, KSM Consulting

Dr. Ora Pescovitz, Eli Lilly & Company

Laura Viaches, Eli Lilly & Company

The following officer slate was also approved:

President: Arnold C. Hanish, Retired, Eli Lilly & Company

Treasurer: Jack Hayford, Retired, Breadsmith

Secretary: George Graham, Deloitte

Executive Vice President: Matthew Mindrum, Butler University

In August 2014 Indianapolis Opera announced it will mark the occasion of its 40th anniversary with an intensive period of organizational assessment focused on a new artistic vision and business model. Funded by Lilly Endowment, the organizational assessment and planning effort is being led by Indianapolis Arts Leader Steven Stolen.

Celebrating its 40th anniversary season, Indianapolis Opera (IO) brings the passion, excitement and art of the opera to Indiana. As the only professional opera company in Indiana, IO delivers the opera experience to diverse audiences throughout the state. With a mainstage series showcasing both grand and chamber opera and educational programming delivering diverse artistic experiences, IO is proud to be a unique cultural resource for the people of Indiana.