INDIANAPOLIS OPERA ANNOUNCES SPEAKERS BUREAU

Indianapolis – Indianapolis Opera announced today its newly formed Speakers Bureau is accepting invitations from community groups, civic organizations, schools, corporations hosting employee lunch and learn sessions, and other interested parties.

“From time to time, Indianapolis Opera is asked by community members to share information on a variety of subjects ranging from the Opera in Indianapolis to The History of Opera or even about specific works,” said Kevin Patterson, General Director of Indianapolis Opera. “With that in mind, it only seems appropriate to create a specific education and outreach program to address these inquiries.”

Interested parties should contact Indianapolis Opera’s Director of Marketing & Communications via email Vandegriff@indyopera.org, by phone, (317) 283-3531, or in writing at 4011 N. Pennsylvania Street, Indianapolis 46205. Requests should include at least three proposed dates and times, the type of talk requested, and the location where the talk would be held.

About Indianapolis Opera

Since 1975, Indianapolis Opera has delivered the passion, excitement and art of opera throughout Indiana with compelling educational, cultural and community activities. The Indianapolis Opera Ensemble program reaches 30,000 children and adults statewide each year, with additional performances in Michigan, Illinois and Kentucky. In 2014, the company embraced an intensive organizational assessment process to examine its business operations, gather audience feedback and understand community needs in a changing environment. One of several outcomes includes the hiring of Kevin Patterson in February 2015 as Indianapolis Opera’s General Director. www.IndyOpera.org.
