

Detra is currently enrolled as a graduate student at Ball State University in the Doctor of Arts program, where she is pursuing a degree in vocal performance with secondary training in education. She is thankful to John Schmid and all of the Indianapolis Opera Chorus community for welcoming her into the fold and being a source encouragement and inspiration.